DR. WILEY TELLS WHY HE WILL SUPPORT WILSON

Attitude of Administrations Toward Pure Food Law the Cause.

ANSWERS CLAIMS OF T. R.

Benzoate of Soda and Saccharine Started Trouble With Presidents.

TERRE HAUTE, Oct. 2.-Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, formerly chief chemist of the Agricultural Department to-night told why he quit the Republican party and would support Wilson and Marshall. His reasons, he said, are of a public nature and therefore he ventured to express them in the hope that others interested may join

"I am not laboring under the hallucination," said Dr. Wiley, "that the Democratic party in returning to power under with all problems. In my own case the chief cause of breaking away from lifelong political affiliations is directly due to the attitude of the Republican Administrations, those of Roosevelt and Taft, to the food and drugs act, which became

"Admiring Mr. Roosevelt as I do for his many great services to the State, I would not attribute his indifference at that time to any cause but lack of coneideration.

"About the time the adulterators were appealing to the Secretary of Agriculture and the President of the United States I was a guest of the Quill Club of New York. A gentleman approached me in a manner somewhat strange I thought. You are doing more to destroy the Republican party,' he said, 'than all its political opponents.' "I asked for other information and he

"The Republican party is the bulwark of the business of this country and you are attempting to destroy business."

"At that time I had no idea that Secre tary Wilson and President Roosevelt would join hands to paralyze a law of Congress. Shortly thereafter I was asked by the Secretary of Agriculture to go with him to the President's office. Solicitor McCabe and Associate Dunlap were also of the party.

"We met representatives of manufacturers, including James S. Sherman, at that time a member of the House of Representatives, appearing in the interests of Sherman Bros. of Oneida, N. Y. They spent the previous exemine with the They spent the previous evening with the President, showing him how Wiley was ruining Republican business.

"Mr. Wilson answered, Yes." Then, turning to us the President said: Dr. Wiley so you think the use of benzoate of sods so you think the use of benzoate of soda in foods in injurious?"

"I answered: 'I do not think: I know'

"Then returning to the Republican representatives of business and striking the table with a ringing bloy, of his fist the President said: 'Gentlemen, if this drug is injurious you shall not put it in foods.'

Two days thereafter the board was gazetted. It was received with a shout of acclaim from the throat of every adulterator and misbrander of food in to hold a trial and examine witnesses. This was a strange proceeding, converting a Solicitor-General's office into a court of justice. It led Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court to say to me:

"What's this I hear? They have been holding court in the White House?"

"I replied: 'Mr. Justice, you know as much about this matter as I do. You have read the papers.' He responded:

"Well, well! It's about time this question was coming up to my court."

"Well, well! It's about time this question was coming up to my court."

Dr. Wiley read the letter written by Cel. Roosevelt to Walter E. Meyer of Winfield. Kan., saying: "The pure food bill became a law because of the very active part I took in trying to get it through Congress. I used, men like Mr. Garfield. Secretary of the Interior, to aid me in the fight."

"When I first requested Mr. Roosevelt to recommend the law he declined, and I have his letter," said Dr. Wiley.
